

STREET CLOSURE NOTICE

The City of Fullerton is thrilled to announce the return of our annual First Night Fullerton, an alcohol-free New Year's Eve celebration of the arts. After a hiatus since 2019, we are excited to bring back this event on Sunday, December 31, 2023, from 7 p.m. to midnight. First Night Fullerton is free to the public, and all ages are welcome to attend.

As an on-going effort to reduce parking restrictions, we are pleased to announce street parking will again be available on Amerige and also on Pomona between Amerige and Commonwealth. Because you live or work in the immediate area, we would like to advise you of several street closures and parking restrictions that will be in effect:

- Pomona Avenue between Whiting Avenue and Amerige Avenue will be closed from 8 a.m. on 12/31/2023 to 3 a.m. on 1/1/2024.
- Wilshire Avenue between Harbor Blvd. to the entrance to the alley leading all the way to Pomona, & the Wilshire promenade parking structure (about ½ block West of Harbor) will be closed 3 p.m. on 12/30/2023 to 3 a.m. on 1/1/2024.
- Wilshire Avenue closed between the alley just east of Pomona Ave. to Pomona Ave. from 8 a.m. 12/30/2023 to 5 p.m. on 1/1/2024.
